William Williams for stealing from the field, was sent to the penitentiary for one year.

Newton Dowtin, housebreaking in day time, one year in the penitentiary.

John R. Tarrant, misconduct in office, recommended to the mercy of the Court, was sentenced to imprisonment for one week in County Jail, and to pay $50. His attorney appealed, and the defendant was allowed to go hence on his own recognizance, pending the appeal to the Supreme Court.

Those who were sentenced to hard labor, were taken to Columbia last week.

The Warrenton Church.

The Presbyterian Church was organized at Warrenton last Friday afternoon by the committee appointed by the Presbytery of South Carolina, viz: Rev. J. O. Lindsay, D. D., J. L. Martin, H. C. Fennel, and Ruling Elders James R. Cunningham and R. H. Wardlaw.

Rev. H. C. Fennel preached an appropriate sermon from Romans v. 11: "And not only so, but we also joy in God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we received the atonement."

The following names were enrolled as members of the new organization: F. A. Wilson, Mrs. Sarah A. Wilson, Miss Janie A. Wilson, Mrs. J. C. Gray, Mrs. M. E. Thomas, Miss M. W. Brooks, James A. Wilson, G. S. Wilson, Mrs. E. A. Wilson, Mrs. M. B. Cheatham, Mrs. Julia A. Martin, Mrs. Mary A. Cunningham, P. A. Cheatham, John H. Thomas, Messrs. J. A. Wilson and G. S. Wilson, were elected Ruling Elders.

Messrs. P. A. Cheatham and James A. Wilson were elected Deacons.

For the present they will worship in the school house. Rev. H. C. Fennel will preach to them twice a month in the afternoons of the second and fourth Sabbaths.

The Vote in the County.

The result in the county as anticipated is overwhelmingly Democratic. It is a source of much joy that the utmost quiet and good order pervaded the whole county. A fistful here and there and nothing more. The negroes in most cases abstained from voting or influenced their vote. The following is the official count at the various precincts:

Table with 2 columns: Precinct Name and Vote Count. Includes Abbeville (464), Antreville (224), Bradley (89), Cedar Springs (103), Chesbury (405), Donahills (202), Due West (326), Greenwood (351), Long Can (274), Lowndesville (239), Magnolia (457), McKetterick's (277), McCarroll (223), Ninety-Six (240), Troy (270).

The Democratic Rally.

The meeting of the Democracy on Saturday was marked for its enthusiasm and spirit. The red-shirts were out in strong force and were commanded by Major Zeigler. Speeches of encouragement and advice, full of Democratic fire and zeal, were delivered by Hon. W. C. Benet, Capt. J. N. Cochran, Hon. D. W. Aiken, Capt. M. L. Bonham, Gen. R. H. Hemphill, E. G. Graydon, W. H. Parker, John E. Bradley and E. B. Gary.

Unheard of Insolence.

W. W. Frazier, (col.) was Rep-Supervisor at Cedar Springs. And we hear had the audacity to challenge the votes of Dr. J. L. Pressley and Mr. Lewis Drennan. As Supervisor he had nothing to do with challenging votes. He was only a witness and ought to have been arrested for his interference. This man has held under the Democratic administration a first grade certificate as teacher in the public schools. He has made his living out of the taxes paid by the white people for the support of the public schools—yet latterly he has become very zealous and bitter in politics. He is a miserable ingrate who has turned to sting the hands that has fed him. What have the white people to expect if the very best element of the negro race proves as ungrateful, as unworthy and mean as this fellow has done.

MESSAGES.

Buy your Cigars and Tobacco from Speed & Lowry.

Speed & Lowry received a barrel of delightful northern apples yesterday. They are good. Try them.

It is remarked that "the boys" treated the town to a coat of deep vermilion Monday night.

Judge Aldrich refused the motion to transfer the case of Thomas Young against the Insurance Companies to the Federal Court.

A child of Mr. Albert Hamblin of the Antreville neighborhood died last week. The parents have been singularly unfortunate recently.

Claud McAllister of Monterey has a cow who recently gave birth to twin calves, one of them is dead but the other is living and doing well.

P. H. McCaslan's gin house was burned on the 29th with twelve bales of cotton. It is not known just how it occurred but is not thought to be incendiary.

Lowry is a regular Fenian with dynamite. He handles it with perfect nonchalance and indifference. We like Lowry but we give him a wide berth on such occasions.

Capt. Bonham went out to Magnolia on election day with a company of gallant, soldierly young men, who are full of the true spirit of soldiery—courage, calmness, discipline and obedience.

The girl who refuses Lowry had better look out. He'll blow her up with dynamite—and he ought to. Any girl who would say no to such a splendid fellow deserves to be blown up.

The town was full of the leading men of each section Wednesday, anxious to hear about the election. Taking them altogether they are fine specimens of the noble yeomanry of a noble county.

The Abbeville Literary club will meet at Mr. M. P. DeBruhl's on Friday night at half-past seven. Mr. Hancock will read the essay, the subject being "Iconoclasm, Ancient and Modern."

Magnolia is a gallant little box. True to Democracy and honesty and honor. No amount of intimidation or bribery by large numbers of negroes can intimidate the community. She gives a good account of herself.

Our friend W. H. Patton was the fine looking color-bearer of Maj. Zeigler's red shirt company. As the folds of the flag floating in the breeze over his head he has been viewed of a dashing cavalryman.

L. C. Haskell of Magnolia is a rising young man in Abbeville County. Firm, straightforward and energetic, he impresses all thoughtful men with the equipoise of his nature, and the soundness and wisdom of his judgment.

Messrs. Frank Cunningham and Arthur Benedict, natives respectively of Ireland and Austria were naturalized at the recent term of the Court. They are both honest and reliable men engaged in business with us and are the kind of citizens we wish.

James T. Baskin, Jr., is a bad man on chicken thieves. One night last week he exchanged a load of shot for a bag, walking stick and crocus sack, belonging to a gentleman of nimble fingers who was about to make a criminal assault upon his chicken roost.

Arthur Syfan, a young son of Mr. Geo. Syfan, our reliable engineer, was run over by a careless driver last week and injured quite painfully. The boys were playing in the street in front of the Academy at recess, and the carelessness of a colored driver caused the accident.

Frank Kellar, of Hodges, was tried recently before Esquire Hodges for killing partridges before the 1st of October. The "Squire found him guilty and fined him $15. Kellar appealed to the Circuit Court which sustained Judge Hodges decision.

Mr. Wes. Cromer has recovered the two bales of cotton stolen from his gin house recently. They were found covered in a straw pile in rear of the gin house. Several arrests have been made, and the probability is great that the litigants, accused and accuser, will make it very interesting to each other before the end comes.

The present town council are determined to enforce the law vigorously against vagrants. Loafing around the street with no visible means of support they are determined to suppress. Several of the colored persuasion have been notified to get employment or stand the consequences. Let the good work go on.

We understand that the meetings at Greenwood and Troy were large and enthusiastic. At the former J. H. Rice, Esq., W. C. McGowan, Esq., Col. E. B. Gary, P. P. Cochran, Esq., and Hon. John E. Bradley addressed the assembly. At Troy, L. W. Smith and O. T. Calhoun, Esqs., spoke. At Enright's Store, Messrs. Parker, Hemphill, Wardlaw and Cason spoke. The crowd was cheerful.

The meeting at Due West last Saturday was worthy of that delightful town, whose citizens never flag in any enterprise to which they put their hands. The Hodges and Due West Band, the Dagaldville Colored Band, the Old Reformers 250 mounted Red-shirts, under command of Dr. Wideman and his aides, and a large concourse of ladies and citizens made up a patriotic and enthusiastic meeting over which Prof. J. L. Miller presided with much grace and dignity.

O. Bradley, Esq., Col. Orr, E. G. Graydon, Esq., D. H. Magill, Esq., Capt. M. L. Bonham and Maj. J. K. Nance of Newberry addressed the meeting. The students of the Female College and of Erskine were out in force.

A variety of Fancy and Toilet goods at Speed & Lowry's.

Shriners Indian Vernifuge saved three thousand children from disease and death. It is the wonder of the age. It will not deceive you.

Refreshments at Bailey's.

"The Boys" at Due West sent Blaine the following dispatch: "Due West polled 326 votes. Blaine received none. Hurrah for Cleveland!" We add—Hurrah for Due West.

GREENWOOD NOTES.

GREENWOOD, S. C., Oct. 30, 1884.—Greenwood is now the most advancing railroad centre in the Southern States. The G. L. & S. R. will be completed to Spartanburg by March 1st, which will give the town the advantage of railroad facilities to any place of the same size in the South.

Merchants are doing a heavy business here, comparative with other seasons, and cotton sales are far in advance of former years. A project is now on foot here to build an Academy, which will cost about $5,000. The educational advantages of the place are sadly in need of some sort of advancement.

The matrimonial fever has struck this growing place, of course, and a number of the ladies will carry to the altar some of Greenwood's fair daughters. Marrying seems to be an enterprise, in which every man and woman has an inclination to invest.

Last Thursday night a festival was given in Wallers Hall, the proceeds of which were devoted to the Building Fund of the Baptist Church. The young people were out in full force, and a gay time seemed to be the experience of all. Turkey, cakes, ice-cream and bonquets made the pockets of young men quake, and the "post-office" and "fish pond" came in to relieve them of all surplus cash. One young man thought to make himself the cynosure of all eyes by pinning bouquets all over his coat front and back, but while his face was wreathed with a smile of conceit, your correspondent learned that all the bouquets but one had been purchased by him.

Whoever he desired to see the "flower boys" make a ridiculous pretense of himself. And he did it. Level headed men never take much stock in flowers, but this gay young gent is not exactly level, perhaps. It is very dry here, and rain is needed badly.

Watches, Clocks and Jewelry.

Mr. H. D. REESE, of Abbeville, is prepared to do all manner of repairing of Watches, Clocks and Jewelry, and will pay all express charges on work sent to him from stations on the C. and G. road. He always keeps in stock a handsome line of Jewelry and Plated Ware, at moderate prices, and repairs orders. Address, H. D. REESE, Abbeville, S. C.

A. E. Rogers.

Wholesale dealer in Corn, Flour, Meal, Meat, Hams, Lard, Bran, Salt, Molasses, Sugar, Coffee, Rice, Soap, &c., will deliver goods at any point on railroad at Abbeville prices. Before buying always ask for prices, as we have advantages that few up-country merchants have.

A Place of Beauty.

The ladies' furnishing store of R. M. Haddon & Co. offers numerous attractions to all persons attending Court, who desire to present their wives and daughters with the latest styles in hats, dresses, cloaks, circulars, &c.

Examine our Stock before buying your wedding and Christmas presents elsewhere.

Found.

FOUND at Due West, last Saturday, a Watch Chain, which the owner can have by calling at the Messenger office, proving property and paying for this notice.
